The parties respectfully stipulate as follows:

1. At the last calling of the case, the Court set this matter for a status conference on April 26, after the United States specified its intention to seek a superseding indictment by April 25.

2. The United States has just notified defendants' counsel that its timetable has been delayed by one week and that it now expects to seek a superseding indictment on May 2.

3. Since the purpose of the scheduled status conference is to address scheduling matters in the wake of a superseding indictment, the United States respectfully recommends that the status conference be continued to the Court's regular criminal law and motion calendar on May 8, 2013. Defendants Mandy Natchi Yagi and Peter Wong agree to this scheduling request.

4. Accordingly, the parties respectfully ask the Court to continue the currently scheduled status conference to Wednesday, May 8, 2013, at 2:30 p.m.
